

REGARDING USE OF EPIDEMIC SPACES MUSIC
by BarOn (the "Customer")

Confirmation of ownership of rights and non-membership of collecting management organizations

Epidemic Sound is a Swedish music production company with headquarters in Stockholm. Epidemic Sound provides the in-store music application Epidemic Spaces for use of background music in for example stores, bars, restaurants, and gyms. Epidemic Sound provides both the Epidemic Spaces application and the music made available in the application to its customers. The Customer is entitled under a license agreement with Epidemic Sound to play music through Epidemic Spaces as background music in the Customer's business space, for the term of such agreement.

Epidemic Sound is the sole owner of all economic rights to the Epidemic Spaces music, such as to:

- the so called "master rights" to the recording;
- the so called neighbouring/performer rights that may accrue to those who perform on the recording; and
- the rights to the musical composition that is embodied on the recording.

Consequently, Epidemic Sound is the sole owner of all economic rights to each music piece in the Epidemic Spaces catalogue and all creators have received direct payment from Epidemic Sound for each musical work.

Epidemic Sound is not a member of any collective management organization such as collecting societies or performing rights organizations ("CMO"). Neither are any of the creators of the Epidemic Spaces music, such as the songwriters, performing artists, or producers members of any CMO at the time of transfer of rights to Epidemic Sound. Hence, no CMO has the right to represent any music piece in the Epidemic Spaces catalogue in any way or to collect any fees for use of Epidemic Spaces music based on membership of a CMO.

Please note that in certain jurisdictions copyright and/or neighbouring/related rights may be mandatorily handled by CMO under local law and other applicable regulations. In such jurisdictions you are responsible for any fees and for making such payments to the collecting societies.

Please also note that if you play any music other than Epidemic Spaces music you may be liable for fees to collecting societies. In this case you are responsible for any fees and for making such payments to the collecting societies.
